Dairy Expo And Cattle Ranch Checks Give Us Confidence Into Q3 Earnings

CONCLUSION

Heading into Q3 earnings, we remain confident that ZTS will meet or slightly exceed expectations. While the livestock market has presented some challenges over the last 12+ months due to the drought in 2012, we believe the cattle market is improving and results should be good over the next couple of quarters. Our recent channel checks give us confidence that the market is improving and this will ultimately benefit ZTS. Recently, we conducted a survey at the World Dairy Expo and visited a cattle ranch in western Kentucky, including a trip to the local stockyard for a cattle auction. These checks were positive for ZTS and we maintain our Overweight rating and $39 PT.

- Fall calf run just starting. Due to the good moisture this summer, cattle have been out to pasture through the end of September and the fall calf run is starting later than initially expected. Additionally, feed costs are low, which is expected to drive higher prices for the fall calf run. Other than the minor set back due to the early snowstorm in western South Dakota and parts of Nebraska and Wyoming, we believe the cattle market is good and showing early signs of recovery. With lower feed prices and a good corn crop, we expect cattle on feed reports to improve over the remaining months of the year, once the USDA's website is operating when the government shutdown ends. Ultimately, we believe the environment is improving and benefits ZTS.
- Cattle ranch and stockyard visit highlights. We recently visited a cattle ranch (cowcalf operation) in western Kentucky and came away feeling good about cattle market in that part of the country. There was plenty of hay and grass due to the good moisture this year and the corn harvest was just about to begin. We noticed several calves being weaned from mothers and deworming medication (Merial) was being applied for the fall. During our visit we also went to the local stockyard and watched two auctions for calves, heifers, and bulls. Prices were slightly lower than what our host was expecting, but we believe prices were still pretty good for the Angus bulls and calves.
- Expect solid Q3 results. ZTS reports Q3 earnings before the open on Tuesday, November 5th. CC at 8:30 AM ET, dial-in #: 866-952-1906, conference ID: ZTSQ313. Heading into the print, we think Q3 results will be in-line to slightly better than Street expectations as ZTS felt the greatest impact from the drought during 3Q12 making for an easier comp. Additionally, our diligence throughout the quarter indicated ZTS ran customer loyalty promotions in July and August, which could help bolster sales ahead of the fall calf run. Important topics this quarter will include an update on product development activity and color on market conditions, including the impact of the early snowstorms.

Risks include increased regulatory pressures, adverse weather conditions, lower utilization of products, increased competition, and macro economic factors.

PJC Estimates vs. Consensus

We expect ZTS to report Q3 results that meet or slightly beat consensus estimates. We are currently projecting 3Q13 EPS of $0.34 on revenues of $1,070 MM, which is in-line with consensus estimates. We are projecting operating margin expansion of 125 bps y/y to 25.69%, which is primarily driven by SG&A and R&D leverage. Our revenue estimate is driven by the following regional y/y growth expectations:

- U.S. revenues to increase 6.0% to $475 MM,
- EuAfME revenues to increase 4.0% to $251 MM,
- CLAR revenues to increase 5.0% to $173 MM, and
- APAC revenues to increase 4.0% to $172 MM

We believe it is important to note the U.S. revenue segment faces a relatively easy y/y comp of 2.3% from 3Q12, which gives us confidence in our 6% U.S. growth assumption given improving livestock trends. We remain confident that the U.S. cattle market is improving, which is favorable for ZTS as ~40% of revenues are attributable to the U.S. and cattle accounted for 32% of revenues in 2Q13.

Note: Distribution of Ratings/IB Services shows the number of companies currently in each rating category from which Piper Jaffray and its affiliates received compensation for investment banking services within the past 12 months. FINRA rules require disclosure of which ratings most closely correspond with "buy," "hold," and "sell" recommendations. Piper Jaffray ratings are not the equivalent of buy, hold or sell, but instead represent recommended relative weightings. Nevertheless, Overweight corresponds most closely with buy, Neutral with hold and Underweight with sell. See Stock Rating definitions below.

Rating Definitions

Stock Ratings: Piper Jaffray ratings are indicators of expected total return (price appreciation plus dividend) within the next 12 months. At times analysts may specify a different investment horizon or may include additional investment time horizons for specific stocks. Stock performance is measured relative to the group of stocks covered by each analyst. Lists of the stocks covered by each are available at www.piperjaffray.com/ researchdisclosures. Stock ratings and/or stock coverage may be suspended from time to time in the event that there is no active analyst opinion or analyst coverage, but the opinion or coverage is expected to resume. Research reports and ratings should not be relied upon as individual investment advice. As always, an investor's decision to buy or sell a security must depend on individual circumstances, including existing holdings, time horizons and risk tolerance. Piper Jaffray sales and trading personnel may provide written or oral commentary, trade ideas, or other information about a particular stock to clients or internal trading desks reflecting different opinions than those expressed by the research analyst. In addition, Piper Jaffray technical research products are based on different methodologies and may contradict the opinions contained in fundamental research reports.

- Overweight (OW): Anticipated to outperform relative to the median of the group of stocks covered by the analyst.
- Neutral (N): Anticipated to perform in line relative to the median of the group of stocks covered by the analyst.
- Underweight (UW): Anticipated to underperform relative to the median of the group of stocks covered by the analyst.
